OUR TEACHERS

This partnership with International House ensures that the content of all of our courses is of the highest international standard and that any teacher who works for Apollo has excellent qualifications and experience. The teacher(s) have the following qualifications and experience:

- Native English speaker
- A University degree
- An International English Language Teaching Qualification (CELTA or equivalent, DELTA)
- Experience in teaching English as a foreign language and familiarity with the difficulties faced by some Vietnamese participants in these areas
- Relevant business background and/or work experience

Apollo also runs a continuous program of teacher development to ensure that our teachers are using the latest methodologies and are continually improving the depth and breadth of their knowledge.

Apollo teachers annually attend Teachers training workshop via International House. This will ensure they deliver English training at the highest possible level. Apollo is the only school in Vietnam whose teachers have these Teachers development workshops and teaching qualification. Apollo currently employs more than 250 native English speaker teachers nationally.

WHY CHOOSE US

MEMBER of International House

IH schools are regularly audited by IH to ensure that we continue to meet international standards. The following areas were assessed by IH inspector:

- ✓ Teaching quality, facilities and equipment
- ✓ Teachers' qualifications, experience and methodology
- ✓ Teaching materials

- ✓ Opportunities for using English beyond the classroom (i.e. English Club)

PROFESSIONAL teachers

As we mentioned above, 100% of our teachers meet the qualifications of International House and are all experienced inspirers to keep students on track.

The academic team is our pride and crucial treasure that defines Apollo to stands out in Vietnam for more than 20 years.

ADVANCED method – FLIP METHODOLOGY

With traditional teaching methods in Vietnam today, teachers are the center of the learning process and curriculum based completely on the text, however, at Apollo, 100 % courses are established, based on FLIP methodology (students are the center during the course) aiming to raise the sense of initiative, create maximum opportunities for participants to practice, interact with foreign teachers as well as communicate with others classmate.

TRUSTED BRAND in Training Business English Communication

Apollo is well known and trusted by international English training organizations and learners for our efficient and globally standard communication courses.

English Communication is our key product. Hence, we have cooperated with IH, Really English and Cambridge University to develop specialist solutions in English communication for learners. To design the ultimate products, our R&D department has:

- Work with prestige organizations in English training and developing
- Studied various high effective English communication training programs all over the world
- Updated advanced technologies and methodologies
- Researched Vietnamese difficulties in learning English as a new language
- Researched Vietnamese learning habits and work environments
- Developed the best fit programs to Vietnamese learners

These features guaranteed our high teaching quality and answered why Apollo is your best choice in Business English Communication training.

QUALITY control

We are running a Quality control system to ensure the engagement and progress of each participant to be observed, administered and improved through the course.

- The participants will be continuously assessed throughout the program, beginning with the placement test, mid-term test to the final test.

- Apollo will provide feedback to you on attendance and students' work
- Three times in the course, participants will complete a survey related to their overall satisfaction, and Apollo will meet with your orgainzation to discuss any issues arising from either side
- We deliver Learning Policy to help students fully participate and get the most benefit from an English communication course.

RESULT oriented

We do not believe in training for training sake. We want to work with you to create measurable learning objectives to make sure that YOU spend its training budget in the most effective and efficient way to receive a tangible return on your investment.

Apollo competes on delivering value for money. We have a strong track record in providing education and training in Vietnam that is relevant and transferable to the work place and focused on achieving our client's objectives. It is our focus on personalized service and results that help us successfully achieve this.

Experience with Corporate training for a wide range of companies

Since commencing our activities in Vietnam 20 years ago, Apollo has been providing customized English language training and professional development training solutions of an international standard to thousands of Vietnamese and international companies and organisations. Some of our clients are repeated clients such as HSBC, Prudential, Piaggio, Earnst and Young, Unilever, Honda, Vietnam Airlines, Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment, Ministry of Labour, Invalid and Social Affairs, Ministry of Information and Communication, Nokia, Sumitomo, Vietcombank, Canon Vietnam, Yamaha Vietnam, Denso, Showadenko, VTV, Hanoi Authority for Planning and Investment (HAPI), Ministry of Transportation…

Customized Service

We see our relationship as a partnership rather than just a training provider. We spend the time up front trying to understand your business and your training needs so we can work together to develop a training solution that works for you. At Apollo we believe that developing such partnerships with our clients is of the utmost importance. Our success in doing this is a key reason why we retain so many long-term clients.
